About us:

Josiah and Micah Kennealy are the founders of the nonprofit youngadultstoday. Together they co-host the youngadults.today podcast designed for equipping individuals who are leading and volunteering with young adult ministries, college campuses and churches. They also host the F.Y.I. podcast designed to answer the questions young adults are asking, while pointing them to the Word of God and heart of Christ.

Together, Josiah and Micah lead the Minnesota Young Adults as a part of the Minnesota District Council of the Assemblies of God. They have led young adult ministries in a church setting, as missionaries to a college campus and now are leading youngadultstoday. Together they have more than twenty five years of ministry experience.

The Kennealy's have a passion to see young adults reconciled to Christ and live a life honoring and pleasing to Him. They also have a huge heart to equip, empower and encourage young adult ministry leaders. They develop resources , organize rallying points and create opportunities for people to connect through relationships.

Outside of ministry they enjoy building memories with their daughters, spending time with friends and family, traveling, drinking coffee, reading, writing, learning and finding new adventurous opportunities.
